Repeatedly voted Orange County's favorite downtown, the streets of Old Towne Orange are lined with antique and collectibles dealers, specialty shops, art galleries and restaurants. With its central Plaza Park, it has been the gathering place for Orange residents and visitors for more than a century. Old Towne Orange contains the largest Nationally Registered Historic District in California and its distinct look makes it a popular location for film and television production. We hope you enjoy your visit and return again soon!

Parking in Old Towne

There is no charge for parking in Old Towne, but most public parking areas do have established time limits. Please be sure to check the parking signs and follow the posted time limits. There is a two-hour time limit for parking along Chapman Avenue & Glassell Street (unless otherwise indicated). Most public parking lots have three-hour time limits. The following parking lots have no time limits:

- Lemon Street Parking lot (northwest corner of the intersection of West Chapman & Lemon Street)
- Metrolink Parking lot (north side of West Chapman Avenue, just west of the rail road tracks).
